

Tal Schechter - Round 17

A population-based study of long-term outcomes in survivors of allogeneic hematopoietic stem cell transplantation during childhood, adolescence or young adulthood

Funded in partnership with the Childhood Cancer Canada Foundation.

Publications:

1. Manuscript in preparation

Abstracts and Conference Presentations

1. Schechter, Paul Nathan, Maggie Rummier, Mark Greenberg, Muhammad Ali, Yigal Dror, Joerg Krueger, Jason Pole. Late hospitalizations among survivors of childhood stem-cell transplantation performed for non-malignant indications. 44th Annual Meeting of the European Society for Bone and Marrow Transplantation. March 18-21, 2018. Lisbon, Portugal. [platform presentation]
2. Subsequent malignant neoplasms after pediatric, adolescence and young adulthood stem-cell transplantation: a population-based cohort. Platform oral presentation at the international European Bone Marrow Transplant Meeting in Frankfurt – March 2019.
3. Late hospitalizations among survivors of childhood, adolescence and young adulthood (AYA) hematopoietic stem-cell transplantation (HSCT) performed for malignant indications. Platform oral presentation at the international European Bone Marrow Transplant Meeting in Frankfurt – March 2019.
4. Emergency room visits in long-term survivors of pediatric, adolescence and young adulthood HSCT. SIOP 2020- cancelled due to COVID19.

Invited Presentations (including rounds):

1. The Hematology/Oncology Divisional Rounds in February 2017
2. Pediatrics Oncology HSR Rounds in March 2017

Poster Presentations:

1. Late hospitalizations among survivors of childhood stem-cell transplantation performed for non-malignant indications. European Bone Marrow Transplant Meeting in Lisbon – March 2018 (Submitted).

Public Presentations and Media